

WHAT'S SO FUNNY ABOUT URBANISM?

SATURDAY 9:00PM OCT 9 2021 | SHORT FILMS

Is 21st century urban planning a tragic comedy or a comedic tragedy? Either way there is a need for laughter. This short film series pays homage to the founding location of this film festival: a comedy club in Los Angeles. The alternative venue created a relaxed atmosphere and accessible conversation about urban planning. This final line up of films showcases the comedic wit shared by many planners and designers. End the festival on a high note with the unexpected humor of urbanism!

FILMS IN THIS SCREENING

FuturePhobia - Henry Dane

Atoni Gaudi: In the Concrete Jungle - Maria Carpenter

Adventures in Buffalo Land, Episode 6 - John Paget

Stolen Bike NYC - Casey Neistat

Walk Don't Walk - Andy Boenau

Why Do Highway Engineers Wear Short-Sleeved Shirts? - Rob Cowan

How to Ride like a Gentlemen (or Lady) - Clarence Eckerson