

INFRASTRUCTURE WEEK IS FINALLY HERE!

FRIDAY 7:00PM OCT 8 2021 | SHORT FILMS

Even if no one knows exactly when “infrastructure week” actually takes place, you can experience a taste of it for the next 90 minutes. These three films examine the beauty and passion of big projects. From neighbors’ love of the cantilevers in Brooklyn Heights, to the harrowing yet triumphant meeting of two tunnels in Colombia, a feat that brings pride to workers in two villages. Finally, we conclude with one man’s return trip to Ecuador revealing dramatic changes in the village of his youth. He sees first hand how infrastructure can improve the lives of so many people.

FILMS IN THIS SCREENING

Triple Cantilevers: Grinding to a Halt - Lisa Donneson

The Breakthrough - Alejandro Montoya Gomez

Calle K - Titus Fossgard-Moser

