

WILD CITIES

SATURDAY 5:00PM OCT 9 2021 | SHORT FILMS

Rediscover the connection between the city and nature. From architects who engineer a new building, to preserving migratory patterns of swallows, to communities defending the beloved nature spots in their cities, to birders and shepherds and elephant riders - WILD CITIES showcases an array of people who help cities stay connected to the natural world.

FILMS IN THIS SCREENING

Draw Me A Swallow - Hassan Lakhdar

Omaha's Riverfront Revitalization - Jeff Durkin

Wild & Scenic - Jesse Barber

Shiva Shanker's Fat - Andrew Davies

PEI Climate Stories - Sheep Farming - Jeff Eager

The Gorillas - Alexandra Nadeau

The Pigeon in the City - Matthew Seale, Grant Douglas, Phillip Etergino

Barriers to Bridges - Robin Crane

MORE BETTER THE TRANSECT

Following the Wild Cities short films, join Brian Falk in a conversation about urban planning and the development of the transect.

